Volunteers primarily serve at the front desk and as program leaders.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Achievements

The YMCA offers numerous adult programs which aim to enhance the body, mind and spirit of the participants.

Many exercise activities are offered for adults and senior citizens. Built into these programs are opportunities for social activities that go beyond the programs themselves. Periodically adults are asked to participate in other Y volunteer functions or community service activities. We also offer a Arthritis Exercise program in collaboration with the local health department which is available to the community at large at no charge.

The Y facility houses numerous Y programs and the facilities are available to Y members. Members may use the fitness center, gymnasium, nursery, and youth center at no additional charge. The Y facilities are also available to the general public, especially youth, for a daily fee. Youth may pay a $2 fee during after-school, weekends and some week night evenings and use many of these same Y facilities. We also have several youth-serving agencies that are provided memberships through our financial assistance program. These are typically youth and the Y memberships provide them and their group leaders a place to recreate. We also provide use of our gym to our local school district at no charge for physical education for their alternative school program.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

A final copy of the 990 was circularized to the Board by e-mail. A list of areas for the Board to pay special attention to was also circularized. At the Board meeting on May 13th the 990 was formally approved by the Board. There were no concerns by the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The first meeting of each year conflict of interest statements are circulated to the board members to be filled out and signed. Members are required to immediately notify the executive director if any new conflicts of interest have occurred.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

The Board must annually approve the compensation of the Executive Director. The Executive Director is the only employee that is an officer or key employee. The Board delegates its power to its Executive Committee. There is no member on the Executive Committee that has a personal interest in the Director's compensation. The Executive Committee determines if the compensation is reasonable by comparing the compensation to equivalent YMCA's in other towns of comparable demographics. The Executive Committee then makes a written recommendation to the Board. This recommendation includes the proposed compensation, the identity and source of the comparability data, who was present for the vote, and how each member voted. The compensation may not be increased until the Board has approved the report, which should occur within 60 days of the recommendation. The Board must also include in its minutes a detailed record of the Board members' presence and vote.
